

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

v.

ANTONIO JUAN FARIAS-ARBELO, Defendant.

Criminal No. 22-451 (FAB)

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
ON RULE 11(c)(1)(B) PLEA HEARING

I. Procedural Background

The United States Attorney's Office informed the Court that Defendant Antonio Juan Farias-Arbelo agreed to waive prosecution by Indictment. The matter was referred to the undersigned for a hearing on initial appearance, bail hearing, arraignment, waiver of indictment, and Rule 11 proceedings. Docket No. 7. A hearing on waiver of indictment was held on March 30, 2023. The Information, which had been filed by the District of Florida on September 6, 2022, was approved by the Court. Docket No. 23.

The Information charges Defendant Antonio Juan Farias-Arbelo with one count of conspiracy to import controlled substances. Id. Specifically, it charges that, beginning as early as in or around 2010, the exact date being unknown to the United States and continuing to in or around September 2019, in the Miami Dade County, in the Southern District of Florida, and elsewhere, the defendant, Antonio Juan Farias-Arbelo did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with other persons known and unknown to the United States Attorney, to import into the United States from a place outside thereof a controlled substance in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 952(a) and 963. It is further alleged that the controlled substance involved in the conspiracy attributable to the defendant as a result of the defendant's own conduct, and the conduct of other conspirators reasonably foreseeable to the defendant, is five (5) kilograms or more of a mixture and substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 960(b)(1)(B).

The United States of America and Defendant entered into a Plea and Forfeiture Agreement. Docket No. 25. On March 30, 2023, Defendant appeared before this Court for a plea hearing pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. See United States v. Woodward, 387 F. 3d. 1329 (11th Cir. 2004) (holding that a magistrate judge may, with the defendant's consent, conduct a Rule 11 change of plea hearing). Defendant was advised of the purpose of the hearing and placed under oath with instructions that his answers must be truthful because otherwise he could be charged with perjury.

II. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

Defendant was advised of his right to hold all proceedings, including the plea hearing, before a district court judge. An explanation of the differences between the scope of jurisdiction and functions of a district judge and a magistrate judge was provided. Defendant was informed that, if he elects to proceed before a magistrate judge, the magistrate judge will conduct the hearing and prepare a report and recommendation, subject to the review and approval of the district judge.

Defendant was provided with a Waiver of Right to Trial by Jury, which he signed prior to the hearing. Docket No. 24. Defendant validated his signature and informed that his attorney had translated the document to Spanish and had explained the document before signing the same. The Court thus found that Defendant voluntarily consented to proceed before a magistrate judge and approved Defendant's consent.

III. Proceedings Under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure governs the acceptance of guilty pleas to federal crime violations. Pursuant to Rule 11, for a plea of guilty to constitute a valid waiver of the defendant's right to trial, the guilty plea must be knowing and voluntary. United States v. Hernández Wilson, 186 F. 3d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1999). "Rule 11 was intended to ensure that a defendant who pleads guilty does so with an 'understanding of the nature of the charge and consequences of his plea'". United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F. 3d 1, 4 (1st Cir. 1995) (quoting McCarthy v. United States, 394 U. S. 459, 467 (1969)). There are three core concerns in a Rule 11 proceeding: 1) absence of coercion; 2) understanding of the charges; and 3) knowledge of the consequences of the guilty plea.

Report and Recommendation on Guilty Plea

A. Competence to Enter a Guilty Plea

The Court questioned Defendant about his age, education, employment, history of any treatment for mental illness or addiction, use of any medication, drugs or alcohol, and his understanding of the purpose of the hearing, to ascertain his capacity to understand, answer and comprehend the Rule 11 plea colloquy. The Court confirmed that Defendant received the Information and fully discussed the charge with his attorney, and that he was satisfied with the advice and representation he received. The Court further inquired whether Defendant's counsel or counsel for the Government had any reservations as to Defendant's competency to plead, receiving answers that Defendant was competent to enter a plea. After considering Defendant's responses, and observing his demeanor, a finding was made that Defendant was competent to plead and fully aware of the purpose of the hearing.

B. Voluntariness

Upon questioning, Defendant confirmed that no one made promises or assurances of any kind in exchange for his guilty plea. Defendant indicated that he was not being induced to plead guilty, that he was entering such plea freely and voluntarily because he is guilty, and that no one has threatened him or offered a thing of value in exchange for his plea. Defendant understood that the offense to which he is pleading guilty is a felony and that, if the plea is accepted, he will be adjudged guilty of that offense, and that such adjudication may deprive him of valuable civil rights, such as the right to vote, the right to hold public office, the right to serve on a jury, and the right to possess a firearm. Importantly, Defendant was advised, and expressed to have understood that, because he is not a United States citizen, if accepted, his plea of guilty could result in negative immigration consequences, such as the removal or deportation from the United States, the denial of citizenship, and being barred from re-entry to the United States.

Throughout the hearing, Defendant was free to consult with his attorney or to seek clarification from the Court. He confirmed that his agreement to plead guilty was made knowingly and voluntarily.

C. Maximum Penalties

Defendant expressed his understanding of the statutory maximum penalties for the offense to which he was pleading guilty. Count One of the Information carries a term of imprisonment of not less than ten (10) years and no more than life; a fine not to exceed ten million dollars

($10,000,000.00); and a term of supervised release of at least five (5) years. In addition, a Special Monetary Assessment of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per count of conviction would be imposed, to be deposited in the Criminal Victims Fund, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013(a). Defendant indicated that he understood the maximum penalties for Count One of the Information, that the offense charged is a felony, and the potential consequences of the guilty plea, such as the deprivation of certain valuable rights.

The Court then explained the nature of supervised release and the consequences of violating the conditions of supervised release. Specifically, Defendant was informed that, if supervised release is revoked, he may be required to serve an additional term of imprisonment up to the full term of supervised release originally imposed by the Court. And that, if he is currently on supervised release in a different case than the one object of the Information here, his plea of guilty, if accepted, could result in negative consequences, such as the revocation of his supervised release in that other case.

The Court further advised Defendant that in certain cases the Court may also order, or be required to order, that Defendant pay restitution to any victim of the offense, and the Court may also require him to forfeit certain property to the Government. Defendant acknowledged the forfeiture provision in the plea agreement. Defendant was also informed that any sentence imposed in this case could be imposed to run concurrently or consecutively to any sentence he may be currently serving in another case.

D. Sentencing Procedure

Defendant was informed that, in determining his sentence, the District Judge is required to consider, but not necessarily follow, the Sentencing Guidelines. Defendant confirmed that he discussed with his attorney how the Sentencing Guidelines might apply to this case. Defendant was specifically informed that the Court, after considering the applicable Sentencing Guidelines, could impose a sentence different from any estimate provided by his attorney or expected by him, and that the Court had the authority to impose a sentence that is more severe or less severe than the sentence called for by the Sentencing Guidelines. Defendant was advised, and informed to have understood, that the Sentencing Guidelines are thus considered advisory, and that during sentencing the District Court will consider the sentencing criteria found at Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a), which include the seriousness of the offense, the need for deterrence of criminal conduct, the need to protect the public from further crimes, the need to provide Defendant with educational or vocational training, or medical care, and the need to provide restitution to any victims.

Defendant was advised that parole has been abolished and that, if he is sentenced to prison, he will not be released on parole. Further, Defendant was advised of his right to appeal and that, under some circumstances, he or the Government may have the right to appeal the sentence imposed by the Court. But that, pursuant to his plea agreement, he is waiving his right to appeal both the judgment and sentence imposed by the Court, if the Court accepts his plea agreement and sentences him within or below the Sentencing Guidelines range for the total offense level of 35 when combined with his criminal history category as determined by the Court. Defendant informed that he understood his right to appeal and that he voluntarily agreed to this waiver.

E. Waiver of Constitutional Rights

Defendant was specifically advised that he has the right to persist in a plea of not guilty and that, if he does, he has the right to a speedy trial by jury, or trial before a judge sitting without a jury if the Court and the Government so agree; that at trial he would be presumed innocent and the Government would have to prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt; that he would have the right to the assistance of counsel for his defense, and that, if he could not afford one, an attorney would be appointed to represent him throughout all stages of the proceedings; that at trial he would have the right to hear and cross examine all witnesses, the right to issue subpoenas or to compel the attendance of witness to testify, and the right to testify or to remain silent. Defendant was further advised that if he decided not to testify or put on evidence at trial, the failure to do so could not be used against him, and that at trial the jury would have to return a unanimous verdict before he could be found guilty or not guilty.

Defendant specifically acknowledged understanding these rights. He reaffirmed his understanding that by entering a plea of guilty there would be no trial and he would be waiving or giving up the rights that the Court explained.

F. Offense Charged and Factual Basis for the Guilty Plea

Defendant was read in open court Count One of the Information and was provided an explanation of the technical terms used in the Information to describe the offense as charged. Defendant was also provided an explanation of the elements of the offense. Defendant expressed that he understood the elements of the offense and what the Government would have to prove beyond a reasonable doubt if he were to go to trial.

USA v. Antonio Juan Farias-Arbelo
Cr. No. 22-451 (FAB)
Report and Recommendation on Guilty Plea

The Government explained the factual basis for the offense and the evidence it would present if this case were to proceed to trial. Upon questioning, Defendant admitted to the facts, constituting all the elements of the offense charged. Defendant admitted that he was pleading guilty because he is in fact guilty. Defendant pled guilty as to Count One of the Information.

IV. Conclusion

Defendant appeared before me, by consent, pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures and entered a plea of guilty as to Count One of the Information.

After cautioning and examining Defendant under oath and in open court concerning each of the subject matters in Rule 11, the Court finds that the defendant, Antonio Juan Farias-Arbelo, is fully competent and capable of entering this guilty plea, is aware of the nature of the charge and the maximum statutory penalty it carries, understands that the charge is supported by evidence and a basis in fact, has admitted to the elements of the offense, and has done so in an intelligent and voluntary manner with knowledge of the consequences of his guilty plea.

I recommend that the Court accept the guilty plea and that Defendant be adjudged guilty as to Count One of the Information.

IT IS SO RECOMMENDED.

This Report and Recommendation is issued pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Rule 72 (d) of the Local Rules of this Court. Any objections to the same must be specific and must be filed within fourteen (14) days of its receipt. Failure to file timely and specific objections to the Report and Recommendation is a waiver of the right to review by the District Judge. United States v. Valencia-Copete, 792 F. 2d 4 (1st Cir. 1986).

A sentencing hearing is scheduled to be held on July 10, 2023, at 9:00 a.m., before the presiding judge, Hon. Francisco A. Besosa.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 10th day of April 2023.
